Ramadhan Moon

The sighting of the new moon is the beginning of the month of Ramadhan!

As I look searchingly into the sky,
I look for a sign from Allah the Most High.
People think I'm crazy sitting in this cold,
But I quest for something more precious than gold.

“ Ramadhan is the month in which the Qur'an was revealed to our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Muslims are commanded to fast during this month and increase good deeds.

It is such a special month that if we do a good deed, we will be rewarded many times more for it.

To make it easier, Allah has chained up the shayateen (devils/evil jinn) so that they can't influence us into bad deeds.

In this month, Allah widens the doors of mercy and forgiveness. Allah invites us to repent so that He may forgive us all.

At night time, we have special prayers — tarawih — which are exclusive to Ramadhan.

In this month, there is also a special night called Lailatul Qadr which is more superior than a thousand months.

Fatima

Assalamu alaykum!

I'm so excited, and it's all because of my mum.

She was in the kitchen throughout the weekend, cooking mince and making samosas. No not just five or six samosas. but what looked like hundreds of them!

I asked my mum what the special occasion was. Mum said, "Ramadhan is coming very soon and I am making preparations for it."

Zayd asked, "Who is Ramadhan?" Mum just laughed.

She said, "Ramadhan is a special month in which we Muslims don't eat and drink during the day. We do this fasting for a whole month!"

Zayd and I were so excited and decided that we were going to fast as well. Mum said, "You will need to make preparations as well, only then you can fast."

It sounds so much fun; I hope you will be able to fast with us.

The First Verses

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was forty years old. He would often go away for a few days to the mountains near Makkah and spend time alone. He would think about the world around him.

His wife, Khadija رضي الله عنها would prepare some food for the few days he was away.

One night, the Prophet ﷺ was in a cave (Hira) near the outskirts of Makkah. The angel Jibra'il عليه السلام appeared to him and commanded him "Iqra!" which means "Read!"

The Prophet ﷺ was shocked to see this person in the cave.

Muhammad ﷺ was unlettered, which means he could not read or write, so he replied, "I cannot read."

The angel squeezed our Prophet ﷺ very hard and again commanded "Iqra!"

Our Prophet ﷺ again replied to the angel, "I cannot read".

The angel squeezed him very hard a second time and commanded him, "Iqra!" Again, our Prophet ﷺ gave the same reply.

The angel squeezed the Prophet ﷺ for a third time and this time recited five verses, which were the first verses of the Holy Qur'an to be revealed.

The Prophet ﷺ repeated the words after the angel.

Our Nabi Muhammad ﷺ was terrified and he hurried home and told his wife, Khadija ﷺ.

After that they went to Waraqah ibn Nawfal, a man with knowledge of previous religious books, who confirmed that this was an angel that had brought a divine message to Muhammad ﷺ.

It was on this night in Ramadhan that the Prophet ﷺ received revelation. It was also the first time he had seen the angel Jibra'il ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ continued to receive verses from Allah over the next twenty-three years.

These verses are the Qur'an which we have with us today.

The First Verses

*Recite in the name of your Lord who created -
Created man from a clinging substance
Recite, and your Lord is the most Generous -
Who taught by the pen -
Taught man that which he knew not.*

Translation of Surah
Al-Alaq, 96:1-5

Lunar

The Islamic calendar is based on the lunar calendar.

One lunar month is the time taken for the moon to orbit the Earth once.

One lunar month takes 29 to 30 days to complete.

The sun and moon helps us keep track of time. The sun helps us through the day and the moon help us through the month.

The Islamic month starts with the sighting of the new moon.

The lunar year is shorter than the solar year by around ten days.

The first year of the Hijri calendar is when the Prophet ﷺ did the Hijra from Makkah to Madinah.

One solar year is equal to one orbit of the Earth around the sun, which takes about 365 days.

The Islamic calendar has 12 lunar months.

Virtues of Ramadhan

The first part of the month is linked to mercy, the second to forgiveness and the third to salvation (freedom from the fire of hell).

In one narration it is mentioned that Allah sets free many thousands of people from the Fire of Hell. He does this on every night of Ramadhan.

The smell from the mouth of a fasting person is more fragrant in the eyes of Allah than the smell of musk (perfume).

When we perform a nafil act in Ramadhan we are rewarded with that of a fardh. When we perform a fardh act, the reward is multiplied seventy times.

Whoever gives food to a fasting person to break the fast, his sins will be forgiven and he will be saved from the fire.

Even if it's just a sip of water, milk or a date.

Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه narrates: "When the month of Ramadhan begins, the shayateen are chained, the doors of paradise are opened and the doors of hell are locked."

"Each deed of the son of Adam is multiplied. One deed is multiplied between 10 and 700 times." Allah says, "Except for fasting because this is for me and I will give the reward myself."

Qur'an and fasting will intercede for a servant. Fasting will say, "O Lord! I stopped him from drink, food and desires during the day.

So grant me the opportunity to intercede for him."

Whoever fills the stomach of a fasting person, Allah will give him water from the fountain of Kawthar.

Whoever drinks from this water will never feel thirsty again.

GET THE BEST OUT OF RAMADHAN

Screen Time to Deen Time

It's time to get in the Ramadhan Zone,
Switch off the tech, switch off the phone.
Do some dhikr, read some Qur'an,
Pray some nafl, build your iman.

The phone is really just a distraction,
So switch it off, it's time for action!
Honour your parents, please take heed,
Respect and kindness, it's all they need.

Pray salah and tarawih, every day,
Be kind and just— it's the only way.
Stop all bad things and do good deeds,
Ask for forgiveness and remove the 'weeds'.

It's time for charity, yes give it away,
For the sick and needy, we need to pray.
Have you the guts, to ban the phone,
and always be in the Ramadhan Zone?

Use the letters above and make five words.

Allah has filled our hearts with the light of iman (faith).

When we keep our hearts clean, the light of iman shines through and helps us to see the correct path. It helps us make the right choices and makes obeying Allah easier.

When we sin and do bad things our heart becomes dirty. This stops the light of iman shining through. We find it harder to do good and easier to do bad.

We can keep our hearts clean by repenting, always choosing to do good and helping others.

Fasting (Sawm)

Hard Questions with Easy Answers

Fasting in the month of Ramadhan is the fourth pillar of Islam. It is an important part of Islam and compulsory upon all Muslims to fast

WHAT IS FASTING?

No eating or drinking during the hours of daylight (before Fajr until Maghrib).

To refrain from all sins during this same time such as lying, cheating, swearing, backbiting and fighting.

ACTIONS TO AVOID

To avoid all bad and negative behaviour. Getting angry, arguing and bad language should be avoided.

WHY DO WE FAST?

There are many benefits of fasting for our health and wellbeing. The reason we fast is so that we gain taqwa and patience. We become better, sincere and pious Muslims.

WHAT BREAKS THE FAST?

The fast is broken if we eat or drink whilst we are fasting.

(If we forgetfully or accidentally eat or drink our fast does not break.)

WHO SHOULD FAST?

All mature Muslims, male and female, must fast.

Some people are exempt from fasting:

- (1) Sick people
- (2) Travellers
- (3) Very old people who can't fast
- (4) Young children (should practice fasting as soon as they can)

SOME BENEFITS OF FASTING ARE:

- * Whilst fasting, we appreciate food and drink more and understand how people with no food feel.
- * Our stomach gets a well-needed rest!
- * Improves patience and willpower.
- * Reminds us that Allah is always watching.
- * Gives us reward and takes us towards Jannah.

ACTIONS IN RAMADHAN:

Whilst fasting we should do as many good deeds as we can. We should read more Qur'an and be regular in our prayers. We should be kind and helpful to our parents, elder teachers and neighbours.

Zayd

Assalamu Alaykum, my friends. It's Zayd here.

Fatima was so excited last night that she couldn't get to sleep. She asked mum to tell us a bedtime story.

Instead, mum sent dad upstairs to talk to us. He told us stories about when he was a little boy.

Dad said, "My brothers and sisters used to stay awake all night awaiting news of the new moon.

"Once, we saw something strange in the sky. It couldn't be a star! We quickly shouted to grandma to ask her what it was.

"Grandma just replied, 'Happy Ramadhan!' and told us to go to sleep so we could wake up for Suhoor tomorrow.

"The strange sight in the sky was in fact the faint sliver of the new moon, which signified the start of Ramadhan."

Fatima and I slept soundly, dreaming of moons and samosas.

Suhoor

The Prophet ﷺ Said:
"Do suhoor because in suhoor there are blessings"

Bukhari and Muslim

Suhoor - or 'sehri' - is the meal before we start our fast. It is the blessed time before fajr, the light meal we have also has great blessing.

The Prophet ﷺ said that we should partake in suhoor, even if it is a glass of water. Allah sends his mercy on those people who partake in suhoor and the angels ask Allah for forgiveness on their behalf.

Tahajjud is a special optional prayer which can be performed all year round. Our Prophet ﷺ never missed this prayer.

Tahajjud should be prayed in the last portion of the night before Fajr start time. We should all make tahajjud a part of our 'sehri routine'. Du'as that are made after tahajjud are accepted.

If you think you won't wake up for suhoor, then eat a little while before you go to sleep. We must stop eating before the time of Fajr begins because that is the starting time for fasting.

If you are fasting, you should not speak vulgarly or act indecently. If someone swears at you or wants to fight you, you should reply, "I am fasting!"

When Ramadhan comes, the shayateen are chained so they can't influence you. It's your nafs that makes you do bad.

Whoever does not quit false speech (lying, cheating, swearing, slandering, backbiting...) and acts upon it, Allah does not have any need for him leaving his food and drink.

Who Must Fast?

O YOU WHO BELIEVE, FASTING HAS BEEN ENJOINED UPON YOU AS IT WAS ENJOINED UPON THOSE BEFORE YOU SO THAT YOU MAY BECOME RIGHTEOUS. (HOLY QURAN 2:183)

Fasting is obligatory on all adult Muslims, male and female, who are sane and mature.

A person who is sick (and fasting will make it worse) does not need to fast.

A person on a journey (musaafir) does not need to fast.

If a doctor advises a person not to fast then that person should not fast.

A woman who does not need to pray does not need to fast during that same time.

Allah has commanded Muslims to fast for the month of Ramadhan.

Although it is compulsory for Muslims to fast, there are certain people who are exempt from fasting.

If a person might die or become extremely ill because of the fast, they can break it.

Iftar

Salman ibn 'Aamir narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

"When one of you breaks his fast, let him break it with dates. If he cannot find dates, let him break it with water, for it is a means of purification."

Tirmidhi

Draw a picture of what you would like to eat for iftar:

At the end of the day when the fast is over and we are allowed to eat again, our beloved Prophet ﷺ advised us to break our fast with dates and water.

If we don't have dates and water, any food and drink can be used to open the fast.

Du'a when Breaking Fast

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ صُومْتُ وَبِكَ آمَنْتُ
وَعَلَى رِزْقِكَ أَفْطَرْتُ

O Allah, I fasted for You and I believe in You and I break my fast with Your sustenance.

Allah accepts the du'a or gives you something better in return or removes some future calamity or gives you recompense on the Day of Judgement..

HADITH: Whatever is prayed for at the time of breaking the fast is granted and never refused.

Fatima

My grandad came to visit us yesterday. I told him all about the new game that I want for Eid.

"Why don't you ask Allah for it just before you open your fast?" he replied, "the time just before the fast opens is a very blessed time, my child, a time when du'as are accepted!

"Take this time to sit down and make du'a to Allah. You can ask Allah for your new game, but also think about the important things, like our friends and family, people who are sick, or poor, or need help, people who have passed away before us...

"My child, will you pray for your old grandfather when he has gone?!"

I felt sad to think of my grandad passing away, but at the same time I knew that death will come to all of us, so I nodded.

I always seem to forget a lot of things, and sometimes I even forget to make du'a!

Why don't we both have a good think about all the things we will ask for and all the things we need to thank Allah for!

Allah has promised us great rewards for ibadah during Ramadhan.

Fasting is a Shield

Zayd is fasting, so help him keep away from bad things

safety

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said,

"Fasting is a shield from the hellfire, just like a shield of yours in battle."

Ibn Mājah

Zayd

In the olden days, people used arrows and swords to fight.

They used shields to protect themselves.

The shield would stop swords and arrows from hurting them in battle. It would protect them and save their lives.

In the same way, fasting is a shield that protects us from the fire of Hell.

When we fast, it is easier to keep away from bad and negative actions.

When we fast, we should be the best we can and perform as many good deeds as we can.

When we fast, we are protected from Jahannam.

Let's not weaken our shields by committing sins like lying, backbiting and hurting others!

Break Down!

How is eating a chapatti similar to a big task?

If you break it down into smaller bits, it's very easy to finish.

Sounds funny, but try it. Take a big task and break into manageable bits.

History

During Ramadhan, Muslims perform a special night prayer called tarawih.

Muslims have been praying tarawih from the time of our Prophet ﷺ until today.

In the time of Umar رضي الله عنه, he saw the people praying tarawih in the masjid and at home. They were praying on their own or in small groups.

He advised the people to come to the masjid and pray together in one big group (jama'ah). He also fixed the number of raka'at to twenty.

After every 4 raka'at, they used to rest and do dhikr, tasbih, or recite Qur'an, etc.

Since then, Muslims pray the tarawih together after Isha, but before the witr prayer.

Muslims try and complete the whole Qur'an during Ramadhan by reciting in the Tarawih prayers.

Tarawih has great blessings and is only performed in Ramadhan.

Tarawih is performed after the fardh and sunnahs of Isha, just before the witr.

During this month, even the Witr salah is performed in Jama'ah.

During the month of Ramadhan, the Prophet ﷺ would recite the entire Qur'an to Angel Jibra'il عليه السلام. The angel would also recite the whole Qur'an to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

We read 20 raka'at—two raka'at at a time. Each time we complete 4 raka'at, we take a short break. The entire Qur'an is completed within the tarawih prayers in this month.

Al Qur'an

Indeed, this Qur'an guides to that which is right, and gives glad tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds, that they will have a great reward.

(Holy Qur'an 17:9)

The first verses of the Qur'an came to our Prophet ﷺ in the Cave Hira near Makkah.

There are 114 Surah in the Qur'an and it is divided in 30 sections (para).

The Qur'an is the word of Allah and is not authored by any person.

The Qur'an was revealed over a period of 23 years.

The Qur'an contains 6236 verses.

A hafiz is a person who knows the whole Qur'an by heart.

Allah has protected the Qur'an from changes.

The Qur'an is a guidance for all mankind until the Day of Judgement.

Allah will not reveal any more books after the Qur'an. It is the last revelation.

Our Prophet ﷺ knew the Qur'an by heart and followed all its teachings

Zayd

Assalamu Alaykum. This is an extremely special time for our family; my dad is going to do i'tikaf for the last ten days of Ramadhan.

I really wanted to join him but I have to go to school. Dad said that I have to be the 'man of the house'.

Being the 'man of the house' sounds like hard work - I have to remember to put the bin out, go to the shops for my mum, help with the cleaning, and look after my sister Fatima.

I've decided to do iftar at the masjid everyday. I'm going to stay with my dad after Maghrib and do dhikr all the way till Isha.

Dad said I can do i'tikaf with him every weekend.

Mum has already got his blanket, pillow and clothes ready for the ten days. She said that Fatima and I can go to help my dad set up his bed in the masjid.

Straight after school, we will quickly help Mum with all the chores so we can go to the masjid on time.

I can't wait!

I'tikaf

I'tikaf is to stay inside the masjid and worship Allah. Women do i'tikaf in a designated area of their home.

It is sunnah to do i'tikaf in the last 10 days of Ramadhan. The mu'takif (person doing i'tikaf) dedicates all their time to ibadah. They can only leave the masjid/i'tikaf area for taking a bath, making wudhu or going to the toilet.

Things I do and think about whilst in I'tikaf

- 1 The purpose of i'tikaf is to devote oneself to the worship of Allah without any worldly distractions.
- 2 I'tikaf in the last ten days of Ramadhan is sunnah.
- 3 Whoever does I'tikaf for the last ten days of Ramadhan, he will attain reward as if they have performed 2 Hajj and 2 Umrahs. (Bayhaqi)
- 4 At least one person from the Muslim community must perform the sunnah i'tikaf.

Lailatul Qadr

During the month of Ramadhan, there is one special night called Lailatul Qadr (the night of Power).

This one night is greater than a thousand months.

When we do a good deed on this night, we get the same reward as doing that deed every night for a thousand months.

On this night, the Qur'an was brought down to the lowest heaven from the Lawh-e-Mahfooz.

From here, the Qur'an was revealed to our Prophet ﷺ over a period of 23 years.

We should dedicate this night to worshipping Allah, reciting the Qur'an, performing optional salah, doing dhikr and doing as many good deeds as possible.

If we can't stay awake during Lailatul Qadr, we should pray Isha with jama'ah. We should then wake up and perform Fajr with jama'ah.

We will be rewarded for a full night of worship.

We don't know the exact date when this night takes place. What we do know is that it is likely to occur during one of the odd nights in the last 10 days of Ramadhan (21st, 23rd, 25th, 27th or 29th).

We should also...

IMPORTANT ACTIONS DURING RAMADHAN

RECITE

During Ramadhan, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ used to recite the Qur'an to angel Jibra'il ﷺ. The angel used to recite the Qur'an back to our Prophet ﷺ as well.

We too should recite the Qur'an in abundance during Ramadhan.

SADAQAHAH

The Prophet ﷺ was most generous during the month of Ramadhan. Many people pay their zakah in Ramadhan.

We too should be very charitable and generous in Ramadhan.

SALAH

There is a special prayer called tarawih which we perform every night in Ramadhan.

We should pray our Tarawih every night and never miss any of our five salah.

CHANGE

Ramadhan is a month of change, a month of goodness and a month of peace.

Take this opportunity to change our lives and develop good manners, habits and character.

NIGHT

The Prophet ﷺ told us to look out for Lailatul Qadr - it has immense reward and blessing.

Let's take advantage of Lailatul Qadr and spend the whole night in worship, du'a and prayer.

REPENT

Ramadhan is a time to have our sins forgiven.

We should ask Allah for forgiveness and make a firm intention to avoid these sins.

We should also ask forgiveness for our shortcomings in our good actions - for not doing these actions as good as we should have.

Repentance is the first step towards change.

It's never too late to change!

Driving Test

Test Your knowledge!

1. What is the name of the special salah read during Ramadhan only?

2. How many raka'at do we normally read in this special salah?

3. How many fasts are there in Ramadhan?

4. Which night is very special, and why?

5. Why do people do i'tikaf?

You Made it!

Keep it Moving

When Ramadhan is almost over, it's time to think about keeping it going... Don't worry you can go at super hero speed, without any limits.

In Ramadhan, we become more punctual in salah; we are less selfish and think about other people; we read more Qur'an, and do more good deeds; we leave all our bad habits such as lying, cheating, bullying and fighting behind. We become good Muslims and become closer to Allah.

Keep up all the goodness until next Ramadhan!

Eid ul Fitr

REMEMBER EID SALAH IS WAJIB SO DON'T MISS IT!

Sadaqat ul Fitr is a special gift for the poor people so that they can also celebrate Eid. Every person who pays Zakah needs to give this money

Before the Eid Prayer a grown up in the family usually gives Sadaqat ul Fitr on behalf of the family

EID DAY sunnah

- ♥ Stay up and worship on the night before Eid.
- ♥ Trim your hair (boys/men) and clip your nails
- ♥ Have a bath (ghusl).
- ♥ Wear your best clothes (they don't have to be new).
- ♥ Applying itr (perfume) - for boys and men.
- ♥ Eat a date or something sweet.
- ♥ Walk to the place of prayer.
- ♥ Recite takbeer until Eid Salah.
- ♥ Happily meet fellow Muslims.

Fatima

Assalamu Alaykum. Hooray! I mean Masha-Allah! I came second in the Ramadhan Competition!

Today was results day, the last day of fasting. We all brought our 'Fast Track' sheet to the masjid.

I was so excited as we were adding up the scores. We didn't let each other see our results.

My number one fan was Zayd. He knew that I worked really hard this Ramadhan to keep on top of my fasts, prayers, Qur'an recitation and good deeds.

I was really nervous as the results were being called out. It was down to the final few names and there were only three people left, including me!

I was a bit gutted when I never came first, but when Zayd shouted excitedly, "My sister came second!" I felt great.

The truth is that we are all winners, and so are you, because we fasted and worshipped for Allah.

My teacher congratulated us all and said that the real reward lies with Allah, and that Allah will reward each and every person, not just the top three!

ASK ZAYD

Yo Zayd! Now that Ramadhan is over, can I keep fasting?

Salam, bro! Long time no see! How are you doing?

Sorry bro, Assalamu Alaykum! Alhamdulillah, all good...

Wa Alaykumus Salam Warahmatullah :) Did you know that the greeting of the people of Jannah is 'Salam'? Cool, innit!

Really? Plus it's a sunnah, that makes it double cool! Our Nabi ﷺ and the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم were the best!

As for your question, you could always do the 6 fasts of Shawwal which are also sunnah...

So...do I need to pray tarawih and do suhoor for them?

No, tarawih prayer is only for Ramadhan. But suhoor is a source of blessings and should be made for all fasts, Ramadhan or not.

OK cool. So, can I start straight after Ramadhan?

Yeah, but not on the 1st of Shawwal, OK? We are not allowed to fast on Eid day, which is 1st of Shawwal.

Can I fast any other days?

Monday and Thursday fasts are sunnah. And also the 13th, 14th, and 15th of an Islamic month - which are know as the 'Ayyaam al-Beedh' (the 'White Days')

Wow, very interesting bro. What about the Day of Arafah (9th Dhul Hijjah)?

The fast of Yawm al-Arafah has many rewards, but did you know that you should fast the first 9 days of Dhul-Hijjah if you can?

Jazakallah for that...now back to the 6 fasts of Shawwal, can you tell me some hadith or something to motivate me to keep them?

Yeah, but I'll have to look it up or ask a scholar. I have your number bro, I'll text you, Insha Allah.

Fatima Says:

Doctors tell us how to look after our bodies and minds, to stay healthy physically and mentally.

They say we need to have a balanced meal and have regular exercise to keep ourselves healthy and fit.

We need a range of hobbies and activities to keep our minds active and allow us to socialise with other humans in a beneficial manner.

But one thing many people neglect is their spiritual health, which is just as important.

Our spiritual self also needs nourishment, exercise and stimulation to keep it active and healthy.

We do this by performing our daily prayers, Qur'an recitation, dhikr, du'as and reflecting deeply.

Ramadhan is like a fast charger for your spiritual batteries. Make the most of it because it will be 11 months before you get this chance again...

Together we can get it to 100% and keep it there, In sha Allah.

Fajr Hero

After Ramadhan we are looking for some more heroes.

Is that possibly you?

My eyes are drooping, my bed is warm,
Outside the wind is howling a storm.
Even the alarm clock has gone to sleep,
I gather my strength from somewhere deep,
and jump out of bed with a single leap.
